SUN'S ECLIPSE.

On Sunday morning about 10:30 yclock many Batesburgers brought forth their smoked glasses to behold the annular eclipse of the same. The sclipse had not been extensively ad vertised, and many did not know o it, until it began to grow dark and the iew of the heavenly spectre was visable at this place, and it was closely watched throughout until it finally I sappeared. The superstitiously inined, who knew not of the celipse coked upon it as a spooky apparition; these, however, were few.

ONE ROUND OF PLEASURE

MISS KATHERINE CULLUM ENTER-TAINS A HOUSE PARTY AND NUMEROUS OTHER SOCIAL FUNCTIONS FOLLOW IN CLUSE ORDER.

Miss Katherine Cullum is giving a louse party. The guests are Misses Yarborough, Neal, Sewerd and Steele. The round of festivities opened on Wednesday evening at Miss Cullum's beautiful home where a reception was given in honor of the "House Party."

On Tuesday evening Mr. J. C. Culum gave a course dinner at the Summerland Inn, all during the even ng a Columbia Orchestra discoursed enchanting music and those who danced took advavnage of the sweet strain, enthusing airs and for the time being enjoyed the tripping of the light fantastic toe.

To the reception on ,Wednesday all Batesburg's social world were present and as we have not space to chronicle the many names suffice it to say that none were left out.

Those at the dinner party were: Misses Fanny Seward of Augusta, Eva Yarborough of Miami, Fla., Daisy Neal of Atlanta: Freda Steele Roak Hill: Ethel Bowers of Newberry; also cast their votes for him.
